

Miss Rowley's Favourite Book

My favourite book is Do Not Wash This Bear because we read it at the beginning of Year 1 and it was a funny story.

First, Dad wants to wash the smelly, dirty teddy bear even though the label says, 'DO NOT WASH!'

Next, the clean bear comes to life and starts running around the enormous house. The little boy has to try and chase him.

After that, the clever boy gets hold of the mischievous teddy and goes to his comfy bed.

Finally, Dad creeps quietly into the room to get the messy rabbit teddy from the bed so he can wash it. He doesn't see the label which also says, 'DO NOT WASH!'

I can't wait to read this exciting story again when school opens!
