

Planning a Party - Literacy

Look at the image below from the beginning of the story. Max is having a party. What type of party is he having? Have you ever been to a party like Max'? Today I want you to think about a party that you would like. Imagine you could have any type of party for your birthday. Where would it be? What would be the theme? What would you eat? What games would you play?

